At its heart, service is the act of helping others. We believe meaningful service is a learning experience that leads to personal development and positive community impact.

Why Meaningful Service Matters

Insights from Students

- 53% Grow and develop as an individual
- 48% Serve as a positive mentor and role model

WHAT STUDENTS SAY THEY LEARN FROM SERVICE

- 100% Engaging in sustained & impactful projects
- 69% Becoming a better student leader
- 63% Learning about themselves and the community
- 59% Authoring with community & addressing real-world issues

Programs Snapshot (2014-2015)

- 188 community partners
- 122 service events
- 50+ student organizations
- 135+ leaders in civic and community service

At Its Heart, Service is the Act of Helping Others.

- 19 organizations tackling domestic change
- 13 organizations tackling international issues

Inspired Learning

- 147 students with families to enter low-achieving gap in N.J.

Purposeful Action

- 104 students in meaningful service projects and early engagement with the student community

Expanded Horizons

- 24 students in community projects
- 188 community partners

Princeton University